in this way, daily small doses make up for the deficiency of testosterone in the body.

in rats the subcutaneous injection of 10g/kg or the intravenous injection of 2.5 g/kg of undiluted DMSO for 2 weeks showed no definite indication of systemic toxicity.

responsibilities that might have originally been those of the pharmacist are being shifted to pharmacy technicians.